

Quick Guide to Searching the Data Sets

- GO TO: www.childhealthdata.org
- BEGIN A DATA SEARCH Bring your cursor over the "Browse the Data" tab located in the middle of every page and select "Browse by Survey".
- BROWSE BY SURVEY

1. Select a Survey, Year, and Geographic Area

Make Selections to Reveal Topics Below

Select a Survey: National Survey of Children's Health

Select a Year: 2007

Select a State/Region: Nationwide

2. Select a Starting Point/Topic

Child Health Measures (Content Map)
 Over 100 indicators of child health and well-being

- Physical and Dental Health
- Emotional and Mental Health
- Health Insurance Coverage
- Health Care Access and Quality
- Community and School Activities
- Family Health and Activities
- Neighborhood Safety and Support

Survey Sections (Content Map)
 Responses to questions asked in each section of the survey

Healthy People 2010 (Content Map)
 Survey content pertaining to Healthy People 2010 goals

State Profile (Content Map)
 Compare State Profile results for different groups of children

Make a Selection to Reveal Survey Questions

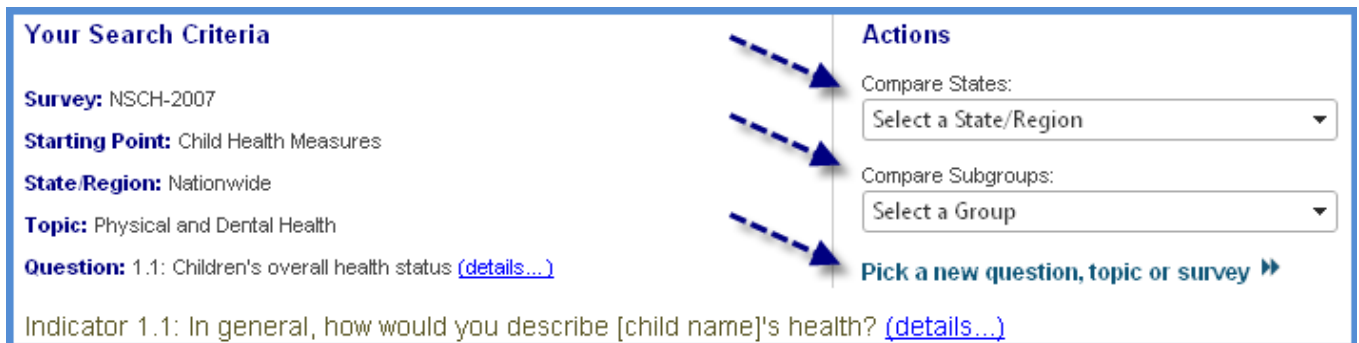

3. Select a Survey Question

Choose an Option to See Results

- 1.1: Children's overall health status
- 1.2: Condition of children's teeth, age 1-17
- 1.2a: Two or more oral health problems, age 1-17
- 1.2b: Prevalence of oral health problems - list of 4 problems
- 1.3: Breastfed ever, age 0-5
- 1.3a: Exclusive breastfeeding, age 6 months-5 years

Click to Reveal Additional Options

- ACTIONS From the results page, compare findings with another geographical area and/or view your results by a specific subgroup. You can also start a new search.

Your Search Criteria

Survey: NSCH-2007

Starting Point: Child Health Measures

State/Region: Nationwide

Topic: Physical and Dental Health

Question: 1.1: Children's overall health status (details...)

Indicator 1.1: In general, how would you describe [child name]'s health? (details...)

Actions

Compare States:
 Select a State/Region

Compare Subgroups:
 Select a Group

Pick a new question, topic or survey ▶▶